Bandhan

Employing the Unemployed Program
(EUP)

BACKGROUND

Bandhan identifies skill development as an important tool to fight against unemployment. Our EUP program has been working with the unemployed youths since 2009 through the establishment of Bandhan Skill Development Center (BSDC). As on March'19 we have imparted skill training to 20000 marginalized youths, out of them 17000 have been placed in organized sector.

OBJECTIVES

- To develop high quality skilled workforce relevant to the current and emerging Industries needs.
- To make the unemployed youth aware about the Job prospects as per Industries requirements.
- To link them with prospective employers and help them retain jobs and flourish at work places.

OUR SPECIAL INITIATIVES

- Bandhan-Konnagar, in association with Sundarban Police Department (Government of West Bengal) has initiated a project, to transform the lives of women / adolescent girls, from the marginalized section of the area, ensuring sustainable livelihood opportunities and self-reliance.
- Bandhan-Konnagar and Directorate of Child Rights & Trafficking (Government of West Bengal), working together on Retail Management & Soft Skills for the youth to learn through skill development and thereby accessing jobs in organized sector.
